Gary Murphy Global Service Award

Created in honour of Gary Murphy, a past president of CSI, who was passionate about encouraging the establishment of new programs to expand the Crime Stoppers global footprint and reach.

The award recognises a recently established – or re-established – dedicated and effective Crime Stoppers program that has achieved proficiency and positive results in partnership with its local or national law enforcement agency, its community and media.

Neil Forrester
Crime Stoppers of Antigua and Barbuda

Paul D Boudreau Coordinator of the Year for outstanding performance and commitment by a Crime Stoppers Coordinator who personifies a spirit of community co-operation and demonstrates leadership qualities such as dedication, initiative, responsibility, reliability, persistence and integrity

presented to

Edin Arnaldo Quezada Ramirez
